Sophie, from South London, graduated with a BA in Fashion Illustration from the University for the Creative Arts, Epsom in 2008. Her work explores the existential anxiety felt by women today – from the masks we employ, to finding acceptance within – by taking traditionally feminine, bubblegum aesthetics and reclaiming them in her unique style.

THE NATIVE STATE

Founded by Scottish based designer Frankie Kerr-Dineen, The Native State opened its virtual doors in the summer of 2012. Inspired by adventure, love and positive vibes, their line of prints and stationery aim to lift your mood, make you smile or get you back on the right path. The TNS Manifesto sums them up pretty well - 'We are the drifters and dancers, sun worshippers and risk takers. The dreamers, the lovers, believers and change makers.'
